CENTRAL COUNCIL OF PHYSICAL RECREATION

Do you want to spend an active, enjoyable holiday improving your table tennis? If so, The Central Council of Physical Recreation in association with the English Table Tennis Association arranges one-week residential courses at its National Recreation Centres, Lilleshall Hall and Bisham Abbey which are staffed by coaches nominated by the E. T. T. A. For about £9 you can receive several hours coaching each day, and in your spare time there is plenty of opportunity for participation in other sports.

If you want a rest from table tennis, you can choose from about thirty other sports and outdoor activities such as lawn tennis, badminton, sailing, canoeing and climbing.

You may also like to know that the C. C. P. R. has nine Regional Offices in England from which are arranged sessional and week-end courses in a wide variety of sports. These courses are available at any time of the year.

For further information about these events, you should apply to: The General Secretary, The Central Council of Physical Recreation, 6 Bedford Square, London W.C.1.

What you DON'T see counts too

Everyone knows that the top is the best in the world. The undercarriage is just as good.

That is why more clubs use JAKES TABLES than all the other makes put together.

There is a model for TOURNAMENT, CLUB or HOME use. From all good sports dealers.
