

Report from the Select Committee on Competitions

The Select Committee on Competition has reviewed the work of the Board's Competition Review and produced an 18-page document with recommendations that were supported by National Council at its January meeting. The Committee is providing a valuable discussion with the Competition Advisory Committee and there are a number of events that were covered in the January document which are still to be discussed with the Advisory Committee and the work of this Committee is ongoing. It is, therefore, recommended that this Committee continues.

The following members are prepared to stand for re-election.

Alan Ransome – Chairman
Karen Tonge
Liam McTiernan
Jonathan Bayliss

Jos Kelly withdrew from the Committee due to his appointment to the Board and Richard Scruton wishes not to stand for re-election as he believes his work has been completed with regard to the 18-page review.

Liam McTiernan was invited to be a member of the Committee so the Committee could liaise with MAG and the valuable work carried out by MAG prior to the commencement of the Committee. Liam McTiernan has provided valuable information and contribution to the Committee.

Alan Ransome
Chairman
National Council Select Committee on Competition Review